

Thrive Domestic Abuse Services (Thrive DAS) offers dynamic, innovative services to women and children experiencing violence against women, domestic abuse and sexual violence (VAWDASV).

We currently have 1 vacancy on the SWAN Project which provides a holistic women centered service that is responsive to the needs of women who are exploited by the sex industry.

---

1 x 35 - hour SWAN Officer

Annual salary £22,500-£23,877 plus pension

Funded by The National Lottery Community Fund until 30th June 2027

The post holder will develop and manage the SWAN Project provision to meet organisational, project specific and social objectives within agreed budget and standards.

---

Location of post – Neath Port Talbot

For more information about these roles, please refer to the application packs which are available on Thrive DAS website www.thrivedas.org.uk OR by emailing katep@thrivedas.org.uk .

Closing date: 9am Friday 2nd May 2025

Interview date: Week commencing Tuesday 6th May 2025

Start date: ASAP

Thrive DAS value diversity and are committed to promoting equality. We encourage applications from women from all backgrounds and communities – Black, Asian, LGBTQ+ or other ethnic minority backgrounds and people with a disability.

We particularly welcome applications from Welsh speaking candidates.

Under the Equality Act 2010 pursuant to Schedule 9, Part 1, these are women only posts.

